He frequently slips on the floor of the kitchen - because his wife - a former model of Goodwill gowns - doesn't really know how to clean a floor - she cold creams it - she hates wrinkled floors - one day he slipped as he was carrying out the garbage - and one of his wife's friends dropped in to drop off a book from the library - called Cave Age Cooking - noticed the floor - and said: My dear - what a beautiful new flowered rug - talk about sculptured - talk about grain - is that real grain - Yes, we had grain for dinner - what texture - If I don't know better - I'd say that is a real tomato --

Only man in the world with foam rubber gums.

He smiles on radio - it's in his voice box - which was a gift wrapped at Gump's - gift-wrapped tonsils - When you hear Dave - with a rose in his teeth - his teeth are so bad - How many people have roses growing in them - If you press butterflies - if you are the kind of person who would like to tap maples so the syrup is fresh - listen to the freshest guy on radio - Dave McH - you talk about fresh - he called Grandma Moses an easle beaver - to her face - when her back was turned - but she got help - later that day - went to an osteopath - who gave her an adjustment, but after she left, she said: Either my back is worse, or there's lumps on his table.

National Museum of American History

The mission of the Smithsonian is the increase and diffusion of knowledge - shaping the future by preserving our heritage, discovering new knowledge, and sharing our resources with the world. Founded in 1846, the Smithsonian is the world's largest museum and research complex, consisting of 19 museums and galleries, the National Zoological Park, and nine research facilities. Become an active part of our mission through the Transcription Center. Together, we are discovering secrets hidden deep inside our collections that illuminate our history and our world.
